Covered

 135 m²

Located just after the village of Peristerona, in a small village that borders the Paphos forest.

Filousa is a typical Cypriot farming village that has not changed in character for many years. With a population of only 30 people, it has some of the most breath taking views around the area, which will stay in your heart for a long time. There are 2 coffee shops in Filousa where the local residents can pick up their mail and shop for local produce.

This three bedrooms bungalow has been built to high specifications, is an excellent value for money. Large spacious rooms, separate kitchen and dining room from the lounge, large terrace area with private swimming pool, mature trees and landscaped gardens.
